CUZA (Calicut University Zoology Association) FLOOD RELIEF

CUZA (Calicut University Zoology Association) is an association including teachers, non-teaching staff, research scholars and MSc students of the department of Zoology. Kerala victimised a severe flood in the year 2018. Many of the people of the state lost their houses, and belongings even their lives. For the rehabilitation of the affected community's government started a chief minister's disaster relief fund. CUZA unanimously no to conduct Onam celebration in that year but to collect money and use it for the affected people. As a part of this CUZA collected Rupees 17,000.00 and transferred the amount to the Chief Ministers Disaster Relief Fund on 23rd of November 2018. Consecutively in 2019 also we encountered another flood and, in that year, also CUZA immediately collected some money and brought some necessary things such as Mats, Food items, dress etc, to the rehabilitation camp held at Ramanattukara, Kozhikode district, Kerala
